PROJECTS

---

Footboolia

Footboolia is an all-in-one sports store, field booking platform, and football academy. The store offers a range of high-quality equipment and apparel. The platform allows easy booking of sports facilities, especially football fields. Additionally, Footballia runs football academies, providing coaching for all ages. The company fosters community engagement through events and workshops, making it a comprehensive hub for football enthusiasts.

book reading

Collaborated with a team to create an online book reading website from scratch using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript scholarships

My graduation project aims to facilitate access to scholarships by creating a website that provides comprehensive information about available scholarships and guides students through the application process.
